FOREWORD

Early in 1941, The Stoneham Independent conceived the idea of publishing a complete listing of all graduates of Stoneham High School by classes. In addition, it was attempted to secure the residential addresses of all such graduates who were still living.

With the aid of many kind people, the work was nearly completed in September 1941, when numerous changes began to come in relative to people joining the armed services. Then came December 7th, 1941, a fatal day in American history—and any attempt to accurately record addresses other than they appear in this book were found to be out of the realm of possibility because of a limited staff.

Upon the urging of many graduates, we are issuing this book, the first of its kind. It is prepared and produced by The Independent as a community service. The Independent makes no apologies for the book as it stands—it only asks acceptance of the conditions under which it was prepared for publication.

Actually, the lists of graduates are nearly 100% correct, although it is amazing how few records of authority exist on the early classes. We make no claim relative to the addresses except to admit that in two years, many have changed.

There are no doubt many errors in this book, since it is the first of its kind. But we hope that another volume will be published before another two years is gone, and with this book as a basis, many corrections can be made easily. At least the bulk of the work is out of the way.

We urge all people interested in this publication to send in any corrections of this book at any time. A record will be kept of these corrections and will be added to the next book.

A word of explanation relative to the cost of this book.

When original orders were taken, through the columns of The Independent the cost of this book was set at 25c. Although some ordered, it was not sufficient to pay for the cost of paper, let alone the composition, printing, binding et cetera.

To those who ordered, the cost is still 25c.

The book now sells for 50c per copy in any quantity and only a limited supply is available. Postage is 10c extra.

The purpose of this Alumni Directory is self-evident. It is the hope of the publishers of The Independent that as a community betterment project, it will be appreciated as such and that the High School of our community, and its graduates, will be brought a little closer together because of its existence.

THE STONEHAM INDEPENDENT.
